ACTIVITY

Video Time - Daniel and the Lion's Den

What You Need: Veggie Tales Video – “Daniel and the Lion’s Den.”

What You Do: Gather the children together onto the carpet and watch the video clip of, “Daniel and the Lion’s Den”.

What You Say:

“That was such a fun video to watch. However, do you think it was easy for Daniel to do the right thing knowing he might get thrown in a pit with mean, hungry lions? (Pause.) No way! That had to be VERY hard to do. Lions are scary! They can eat you up! I bet Daniel was afraid of the lions, but he did the right thing, even when it wasn’t easy. God wants you to do the right thing, too, even when it’s not easy. Who wants you to do the right thing? God wants me to do the right thing.”

ACTIVITY

Animal Fun

What You Need: Play-Doh, rolling pins, and animal cookie cutters.

What You Do: Show the children how to roll the Play-Doh out flat and then allow them to choose one animal cookie cutter from the basket (the teacher should keep the lion separate and make it for themselves). Once all the different animals have been made, talk about all the different animals that everyone has.

What You Say:

At the start of the activity: "When I call your name, I want you to come and choose one cookie cutter animal shape from the basket."

During the activity: "Let's go around the table and you can all show the different kinds of animals we made today. Can you tell me what sound your animal makes? Wow, you are all so good at making your animal friend's sounds. Would you like to meet my friend? He is a lion. Do you know what sound Lions make? Our Bible story today had some REAL lions in it. They were not soft and cuddly like my Mr. Lion. They are mean and hungry lions. Do you remember what happened?"

ACTIVITY

Jump on It!

What You Need: Two black poster boards, four yellow poster boards, scissors, a black marker, and masking tape.

What You Do:

Before the activity: Cut out four large yellow circles. Draw a big happy face on each yellow circle. Cut four medium black circles. You can cut two circles from each piece of black poster board. Tape the circles in a long row on the floor, beginning with a black circle and then alternating yellow and black.

During the activity: The children will take turns jumping over the black circles, which symbolize a lion's den, and onto the happy faces. Each time they land on a happy face, they will say one part of the memory verse. Don't fall in a lion's den!

What You Say:

At the start of the activity: "Raise your hand if you think you're a good jumper. I've seen you all jump. I know you're good jumpers! That's a good thing, because to play this game you have to jump! See the yellow happy faces? You can only jump on the yellow happy faces. Got it?"

"Each time you jump, I want you to say one part of our memory verse. If anyone needs help with the verse, we can all say it together. But, if you land on the black circles, that means you fall into a lion's den. We don't want to do that! Okay, here we go!"

During the activity:

"For I Know"

Part 1

"The Plans

Part 2

"I have for you"

Part 3

"Declares the Lord"

Part 4

At the end of the activity:

"That was a fun game, and you all were so great at jumping and it sounded really loud and fun. In our story today, the lions were quiet and gentle with Daniel. They didn't hurt him. Are lions always quiet and gentle? (Pause.) NO! They are definitely not always quiet and gentle. God made the lions be nice to Daniel. He protected Daniel because Daniel made the right choice. God wants us to make good choices too. He helps us when we do, just like He helped Daniel. What does God want you to do? God wants me to do the right thing!"

ACTIVITY

Don't Keep the Lion - Hot Potato

What You Need: A stuffed lion toy.

What You Do: Have the children sit in a circle. Tell them that this game is played like "Hot Potato." Show them the lion and tell them that they will pass the lion around the circle until the music stops. When the music stops, the child holding the lion will stand and answer a question about this week's Bible Story. Play as many rounds as time permits. Feel free to ask the same questions more than once.

What You Say: "That was a fun game, and you all played so nice. In our story today, the lions were quiet, gentle and nice with Daniel. They didn't hurt him. ACTIVITY

What's Missing?

What You Need: "Story Characters" (from the Activity Pages), white paper, and colored markers or crayons

What You Do:

Before the activity: Photocopy "Story Characters" onto white paper for each child.

During the activity: Give each child a copy of "Story Characters." Ask the children to look at the pictures. Their job is to draw the missing half of each character. Name the characters as you draw them.

What You Say:

At the start of the activity: "Take a good look at the paper I just gave you. What's missing? (Pause.) Yes! Half of King Darius is missing, half of Daniel praying is missing, half of the hungry lion is missing, and half of the mean man is missing. Half of all the pictures is missing! Your job is to draw the missing half."

At the end of the activity: "Your pictures look fabulous! You can use them to tell your family about how Daniel did the right thing. You know, God wants you to do the right thing too. He sure does! Who wants you to do the right thing? God wants me to do the right thing."

CRAFT

Dare to Be Daniel

What You Need: Ornaments and glue sticks.

What You Do: Help the children make their “Dare to be Daniel” signs.

What You Say: “What awesome signs you all made! I hope they help you remember to be strong like Daniel and trust in God to do the right thing. In our story today, do you think it was easy for Daniel to do the right thing. No way! That had to be VERY hard to do. Lions are scary! They can eat you up! I bet Daniel was afraid of the lions, but he did the right thing, even when it wasn’t easy. God wants you to do the right thing, too, even when it’s not easy. Who wants you to do the right thing?
