Story Time - the book, "The Parable of the Lily" by Liz Curtis Higgs

What You Need: the book, "The Parable of the Lily" by Liz Curtis Higgs

What You Do: Gather the children together onto the carpet and read the book, "The Parable of the Lily" by Liz Curtis Higgs.

What to Say:

Maggie, the farmer's youngest daughter, loves getting gifts, especially mysterious ones. One wintry day, she receives a package in the mail. She excitedly opens the package to find a bulb buried in a crate of dirt. This was not what Maggie expected. She had hoped for a doll or a game, not a bulb that would one day become a plant. When spring comes, she finds the bulb in the cellar and tosses the lifeless thing into the garden, never to think of it again. . . . Until she walks outside on Easter morning and finds the most beautiful lily she has ever seen. Through the unique gift of a bulb, Maggie discovers the power of grace and forgiveness and the true meaning of Easter.

Talk to the Children about Forgiveness

At the end of the story Maggie asks her father for forgiveness. Why does she do this? Can you recall a time you've had to ask for forgiveness? What about our heavenly Father...when should we go to Him and say we are sorry? Maggie's father says that forgiveness is what Easter is all about...discuss this with your students.

- Coins — Matthew 26: 14-15: “Then one of the Twelve — the one called Judas Iscariot — went to the chief priests and asked, ‘What are you willing to give me if I hand him over to you?’ So they counted out for him thirty silver coins.”
- Thorns — Matthew 27:28-29: “They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him, and then twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on his head. They put a staff in his right hand and knelt in front of him and mocked him. ‘Hail, king of the Jews!’ they said.”
- Cross — John 19: 17-18a: “Carrying his own cross, he went out to the place of the Skull (which in Aramaic is called Golgotha). Here they crucified him”
- Rock — Matthew 27:59-60: “Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a big stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away.”
