

The Alley Rundown- May 20/21

“God gives you what you need to keep going.”

CG: Pre-Show

1. Worship on the screens

CG: The Amazing Maze

2. Connect Game: Get It Over (Toilet Paper edition)

Tape a line on the floor and split the kids into two teams. The goal of this game is to get the most amount of toilet paper to the other side. Give them 30 to 45 seconds to throw toilet paper and then tell them to freeze. Whichever team gets the most amount of toilet paper on the other side wins. Have them play a few rounds and declare a winning team.

3. Playing Bible Lesson: Armor of God

“Parkview Kids, how are you doing today? (Pause) Awesome, my name is [Host’s name] and welcome to the Alley. So excited that you guys are joining us today in our last week of our series called the Amazing maze. We have spent the last month looking at the early church and how they stayed determined. If you weren’t here, we have defined determination as...”

“Deciding it’s worth it to finish what you started.”

“Once we start something, we have to have the determination to finish it, right? Like, how many of us have ever completed a full video game? How about trying to win a soccer game? How about playing a new song on the guitar or saxophone? Or how about an eating challenging? Like the most hot dogs, or the biggest Sundae? We have to keep at it and be determined to accomplish something.

“Well, we learned a few weeks ago that Jesus has given us the job of telling other people about him. We are to tell the whole world that he lives and that he can save them too. But, if we’re honest, sometimes we might be scared to share that with others. We’re not sure of how they would respond if we told them about Jesus- maybe they would make fun of us and tell other people not to hang around with us. Well, today’s video is about how God gives us the strength to keep going. So check out this weeks’ video.”
